SMALL ANIMAL
EMERGENCY & Critical Care
CONFERENCE

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2022
8:00AM - 4:00PM
The University of Tennessee
College of Veterinary Medicine
2407 River Drive | Knoxville, TN 37996

7 HOURS OF CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT!

Improve your confidence in caring for emergent patients!
This conference will provide valuable information and procedure practice to better triage emergency cases and will contribute to positive patient outcomes. You will gain hands-on experience of many emergency procedures including nasal oxygen tubes, nasogastric feeding tubes, central lines, thoracocentesis, and chest tube placement. Presentations will be delivered by UTCVM Emergency & Critical Care faculty, residents, and veterinary technicians.

All veterinary professionals are encouraged to register, regardless of emergency experience!
