

UTCVM Large Animal Clinical Sciences Department
Horse Owners Education Conference
Saturday March 2, 2024 ~ Knoxville, TN

A good horse owner is an educated horse owner. The University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine invites you to increase your horse knowledge. Whether you have owned horses for years or are new to the horse world, come and see what is new or find out answers to those questions you have always wondered about.

- 8:00 - 8:30 CHECK-IN
- 8:30 - 9:30 Common East Tennessee Illnesses - signs, symptoms, & vaccines Dr. Melissa Hines
- 9:30 - 10:15 Colic Surgery - What does it Entail & Cost & Should you Consider it - Dr. Sarah Templeton
- 10:15 - 10:30 BREAK
- 10:30 - 11:30 Pain in the Neck - symptoms, diagnosing and treatment options - Dr. Phil Jones
- 11:30 - 12:15 Chiropractic & Acupuncture - when to reach for these adjunct therapies - Dr. Neal Valk
- 12:15 - 1:15 LUNCH
- 1:15 - 2:15 Laminitis/PPID/EMS & the benefits of a track system/paddock paradise - Dr. Eric Martin
- 2:15 - 3:15 Breeding the Backyard Horse - things to consider before breeding - Dr. Lew Strickland
- 3:15 - 3:30 BREAK
- 3:30 - 4:40 Ask the Vet: submitted questions from registration will be addressed - Panel of Veterinarians

<https://tiny.utk.edu/horseowner>

Register by February 23