

University of Tennessee College of Veterinary Medicine
Master Teacher Program Greatest Hits!
2016 Summer Fall Events

Friday, June 17 9:15 am– 1:30 pm, Sequoyah Room*
Preparing Effective Tests and Test Questions (WORKSHOP)

Come learn how to create a test that is more reliable, valid, and aligned with your objectives. Learn how to write and assess multiple choice and other types of test questions.

Thursday, July 28 8 - 9 am, Sequoyah Room*
Professionalism in Academia

What is civility in academia? What is professional conduct in the classroom, laboratory, and with colleagues? You're invited to hear published perspectives and join the conversation.

Thursday, August 18 8 - 9 am, Sequoyah Room
Lecture Don'ts

In this highly popular session, Dr. Linden Craig will creatively review ways to give a really, VERY bad lecture.

Thursday, September 15 8 - 9 am, Sequoyah Room
Peer Evaluation of Teaching

Dr. Mickey Sims will lead this review of the structure, best practices, and challenges in conducting, reporting, and using the peer reviews required for promotion and tenure review.

Thursday, October 20 8 - 9 am, Tickle Seminar Room*
Evaluating and Grading Clinical Performance

Students value quality, constructive feedback. Dr. India Lane and Dr. Dianne Mawby will review the optimal use of the grading rubric, as well as help you learn to write useful narrative comments for clinical students or students in similar settings.

Thursday, November 17 8 - 9 am, Sequoyah Room
Student Evaluation of Teaching

Come to learn what the experts have to say about student evaluations of teaching, as well as UT Knoxville perspectives and data from the CVM.

*Note special date, time, or location!

Visit the Master Teacher Program website at <http://tiny.utk.edu/utvetmtp>