This effort rewards pet stores that don't support puppy mills!

“a puppy mill is a dog breeding operation in which the health of the dogs is disregarded in order to maintain a low overhead and maximize profits.”

Avenson v. Zegart, 577 F. Supp. 958, 960 (D. Minn. 1984)

Puppy Friendly Pet Stores

WE  PUPPIES
THAT'S WHY WE DON'T SELL THEM!

Many pet stores that do sell puppies are propping up puppy mills, which churn out huge numbers of dogs under inhumane conditions. Likewise, a consumer who purchases one of these puppies just pumps more money back into the abusive trade.

We have signed The Humane Society of the United States Puppy-Friendly Pet Stores pledge. We don't support puppy mills, and we hope you won't either. For information about how to find a dog who doesn't come from one of these cruel factories, visit humanesociety.org/puppy

- More than 2,500 pet stores across the nation, in all 50 states, have an official policy of not selling puppies.
- Great exposure for the stores.
- Store pledges to help shelter pets.
- Welcome packages supplied to each new PFPS.

Benefits of our PFPS program:

- Increased name recognition for the store and consumer loyalty.
- Stronger community ties with the local animal shelter(s).
- Free listing for each store on HSUS's PFPS web page and in other media.
- Free listing through our phone texting application. Type PUPPY to 30644 and follow the instructions to find a puppy-friendly pet store near you.

Ways we might help a store:

- Free, customized guidance through the process.
- Advice from other store owners who have already converted to a more humane model.
- Help in finding animal shelters so stores can build partnerships.
- Provide publicity for each conversion via a grand reopening (includes media, a ribbon-cutting ceremony, free t-shirts, invitations to local celebrities and more).

What You Can Do:

- Encourage local pet stores to become puppy-friendly.
- Ask your lawmakers to help in passing a retail sales ban.
- Let me know if you would like to be a shelter/rescue partner for a pet store that has converted to a more humane model.
- Use social media networking to help in spreading the word.
